How Can This Bank Serve You?

OUR legitimate field of usefulness is the serving of the people in this community.

If you are earning a salary and want to improve your condition in life, talk it over with us. A banker has access to many facts which are not generally known to the public. Perhaps some of them may be of value to you.

The first step on the road to success is SAVE. The second is BANK YOUR SAVINGS. The rest comes easy.

ENCAMPMENT DISTRICT MEETING

L. O. O. F.

The District Meeting of District No. 6 Grand Encampment L. O. O. F. was held with Trotter Encampment No. 14 of Bradford, on Wednesday evening, over 80 members being present. Grand Patriarch E. E. Campbell of Waterbury, Grand Scribe Gerry S. Walker of Bellows Falls, and Past Grand Representatives Harry E. Parker of Bradford and George H. Stearns of St. Johnsbury, were among the prominent speakers. The Patriarchal degree was conferred by the degree team of Moose River Encampment of St. Johnsbury. The reports showed District No. 6 to be in excellent condition. At the close of the meeting an oyster supper was served.

Ponto, the pet dog of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Marshall, met with an accident Sunday night when the car cut off one of his legs, which necessitated his being killed Monday morning.

About 200 people enjoyed the annual "husking" at Fred E. Martin's Wednesday night. Some 500 bushels of corn were husked, after which Ruth Kenyon and Alfred Gray gave several readings, and refreshments of doughnuts, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Mrs. C. H. Peters and daughter, Ruth, who have been spending three months with her niece, Mrs. Frank P. Worthen and other relatives and friends in this vicinity, left Tuesday morning for Burlington, where they will visit before returning to their home in Denver, Col.

We note among the new members admitted to the vested choir at Wellesley, the name of Muriel Crewe '23 as one of the second sopranos. The vested choir of the college sings at the two Sunday services and assists at the daily service under the direction of Prof. Hamilton C. MacDougall.

Word has been received of the death of Miss Louise Hibbard in Pasadena, Cal. Saturday, Oct. 15th. Her body is being brought East for burial. The funeral service will be held at the home of W. H. Atkinson, Newbury, on Monday, Oct. 24th at 2 o'clock p. m. Miss Hibbard will be missed by a very large circle of friends.

ANNUAL SOUTHERN TRIP.

H. E. Parker, Editor of The Opinion leaves Bradford Nov. 1st by automobile for Miami, Florida. The itinerary includes night stops at Stratford, Conn.; Douglaston, L. I.; Philadelphia, Washington, Petersburg, Va.; Durham, N. C.; Southern Pines, N. C.; Columbia, S. C.; Augusta, Ga.; Savannah, Ga.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Daytona, Stuart to Miami. Distance approximately 2000 miles, all by roadway. Time allowed including stopovers, 21 days. The family party will consist of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, their little son Harry, Mrs. Martha A. Perrin, mother of Mrs. Parker, all of Montpelier, Sara K. Parker and Harry E. Parker. During the many winter seasons passed in the tropics "Editorial Correspondence" has been regularly published in these columns. That it has been appreciated is evidenced by words of approval received verbally and by letter. Therefore we shall continue the service during our winter sojourn in the land of sunshine and palms.

We hope, also, to have an occasional contribution from Ed Howe, which we feel sure will be cordially welcomed by Opinion readers.

LADIES SOCIETY GUEST NIGHT.

About one hundred people, members of the Ladies Society and their guests, met in the church parlors last Tuesday night and spent a very enjoyable evening, with Mrs. Walter Cole as hostess. Mr. Charles R. Taggart of Newbury entertained in his usual pleasing manner. Refreshments of cake, doughnuts and coffee were served at the close of the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young and family of South Fairlee, and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Spence of Chelsea were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Worthington.

Mrs. W. F. Cummings expects to leave Tuesday to make her home in Cambridge, Mass., Mr. Cummings having been there for several weeks. Their many friends regret that they are making a change.

The ladies enjoyed a pleasant and profitable gathering at the home of Mrs. Eugene Prescott on Wednesday afternoon of this week. A large number were present, and all had some work with them. A nice quilt was speedily tied, and the business was transacted with despatch. It was voted to serve a chicken pie dinner in the church vestry at high noon Friday, Nov. 4th. A date for the annual church fair was set for the afternoon and evening of the second day of December. Please bear these dates in mind. On the close of business dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and all went home feeling refreshed by the cordial fellowship in the common task.

O. J. Anderson, Pastor.

Eight feet sore and weary pilgrims were made princes of the Grand Orient court at Piermont last Thursday evening. The court of Bradford conferred the degree. Refreshments were served at close of the meeting.
